

Can we pester you about pests?

Vineland Research and Innovation Centre is conducting a survey targeted to Canadian greenhouse vegetable growers measuring the success of advanced pest and disease management.

The survey will:

Help us answer questions related to:

- The impact of pests and diseases on the greenhouse industry
- How growers manage pests and diseases
- The benefits of research to greenhouse growers and industry
- Require a time commitment of 15-20 minutes

Complete this survey:
